Linda Holiday Sensei, 6th Dan
Chief Instructor of Aikido of Santa Cruz, CA.

Linda Holiday began her study of Aikido in Santa Cruz in 1970. She trained intensively in Japan for several years in the 70's & since 1976 has devoted herself to the founding and development of Aikido of Santa Cruz (formerly called North Bay Aikido). Linda Sensei focuses on the key concepts of Osensei's vision in a down-to-earth way. Her classes are known for their physical vigor, misogi purification, and inclusive community spirit.

Dan Caslin Sensei, Chief Instructor of Aikido of Owensboro

Dan has trained since 1976 starting with Frank Doran Sensei at the Stanford University Aikido Dojo, then with Mary Heiny and Tom Read. He trained intensively in Shingu, Japan under Michio Hikitsuchi Sensei and Anno, Yanase and Tojima Shihan.
